“ If there was EVER anything mum or I needed, you were always there. Anything from mowing the yard, to changing the oil in our old Durango. It never failed, come summer time, it took one phone call and you'd be out in the yard at 7 or 8 am mowing, only stopping to ask for a glass of ice water. You were one of the best guys I know and I'll miss you. You were always willing to help, or just sit around and chat. I love you, Jamie.
